ZINC contemporary to host pop-up shop of art and curated gifts for the holiday season
December 1

December 2016 / Seattle, WA: ZINC contemporary is hosting a POP up of small art and a curated collection of merchandise from their sister shop and gallery ZINC Art + Object in Edmonds, December 1 - 17, 2016. The selection will feature small artworks from ZINC artists, goods crafted by Pacific Northwest makers, and an array of light-hearted gifts. A perfect stop for those who love art, design, and handmade, the pop-up shop will be unveiled on Thursday, December 1 from 5-8pm during Pioneer Square Art Walk.

“We want to delight our Seattle audience by introducing them to our selection in Edmonds,” says ZINC owner, Laura Zeck. “ZINC Art + Object is known for carrying unique, well-designed items. We’d love for our Seattle customers to “shop fun” at the pop-up shop and visit ZINC Art + Object on their next day trip to Edmonds.”
