

Bio

Layne Kleinart

Dirty Laundry

ZINC contemporary

Thursday, May 4 – Saturday, May 27, 2017

Layne Kleinart grew up in Florida and has lived in Seattle since 1975. She holds Fine Art degrees in Painting & Printmaking from the University of Hawaii and the University of Washington.

Kleinart's work has been included in Visionaries – Significant Northwest Artists, Present and Future at the Seattle Center, Bellevue Art Museum Annual, Brevard Museum of Art in Florida, ABSOLUT Vodka Traveling Collection, a King County Public Art Mural Project for METRO, Northwest Print Invitational at Davidson Galleries, A Printing Dialogue at Tacoma Art Museum, Seattle Print Arts at Portland Art Museum, Arte Grafico Contemporaneo Seattle at Instituto de Artes Graficas de Oaxaco Mexico, Seattle Print Arts Invitational at Seattle Art Museum, North by Northwest at Kala Art Institute, Berkeley CA, Printmaking Invitational at Shenzhen Art Institute in China, Paper Politics at 5+5 Gallery in New York, Walker Point Art Center in Milwaukee WI, Autobiography at Seattle Art Museum Gallery, Tieton Invitational Print Art Exhibition, South Lake Union ARTWALK Featured Artist, and featured artist at Minneapolis WineFest.

Layne's community service includes Pratt Fine Art Center Board of Trustees, Seattle Art Museum Contemporary Art Council Board, Seattle Print Arts Board, Richmond Beach Community Council Board, committees for the Henry Gallery Bash and Artist Trust Auction, University of Washington School of Art Advisory Board.