

Biography

Ashley Norwood Cooper

ZINC contemporary

Ashley Norwood Cooper has exhibited her paintings in solo and group shows throughout the United States. In New York, she is represented by First Street Gallery where she will be having her third solo show in 2019. Ms. Cooper lives in Cooperstown, NY with her husband and three children. She holds an MFA in painting from Indiana University and teaches art at SUNY Oneonta.