

BIO

Layne Kleinart

Layne Kleinart grew up in Florida and has lived in Seattle since 1975. Her education includes studies at the University of Kentucky and Fine Art degrees in Painting & Printmaking from the University of Hawaii and the University of Washington.

Finding inspiration in everyday life, the subject of adolescence is an on-going interest for Kleinart. She responds to that juncture of innocence and discovery where emotions are hidden by self-consciousness and uncertainty.

Selected exhibitions include “Visionaries - Significant Northwest Artists, Present and Future” Seattle Center (1995); Bellevue Art Museum Annual (Award 1996); “Surfing the Wave” Brevard Museum of Art, Florida (Invitational 1997); Pink Umbrella Exhibit, ABSOLUT VODKA Traveling Collection, Walker Art Center, Minneapolis (1998); METRO King County Public Art Mural (1999); “Northwest Print Invitational” Davidson Galleries (2000); “A Printing Dialogue” Tacoma Art Museum (2001); “Seattle Print Arts” Portland Art Museum (2002); Arte Grafico Contemporaneo Seattle” Instituto de Artes Graficas de Oaxaco, Mexico (2003); “Seattle Print Arts Invitational” Seattle Art Museum (2004); “North by Northwest” Kala Art Institute, Berkeley CA (2005); “Printmaking Invitational” Shenzhen Art Institute, China (2006); “Paper Politics” 5+5 Gallery, New York (2006); Walker Point Art Center, Milwaukee WI (2007); “Autobiography” Seattle Art Museum Gallery (2008); Tieton Invitational Print Art Exhibition (2009); Featured Artist, South Lake Union ARTWALK (2014); Art Walk & Wine Gala, Prosser WA (2015); Featured Artist, WineFest, Minneapolis MN (2016); “Dirty Laundry” Solo Exhibit, Zinc Contemporary, Seattle WA (2017); Featured Artist, WIT CELLARS, Prosser WA (2018)

Community service includes Pratt Fine Art Center Board of Trustees, Big Brothers Big Sisters, Seattle Art Museum Contemporary Art Council Board, Seattle Print Arts Board, Richmond Beach Community Council Board, committees for the Henry Gallery and Artist Trust, University of Washington School of Art Advisory Board.

Kleinart’s work is held in private and corporate collections in the United States, England, Canada, Mexico and Japan.

ZINC contemporary

Pioneer Square - Seattle | 119 Prefontaine Place South
zinccontemporary.com | 206.617.5775 | @zinccontemporary.com