

BIO

Lynne Hovis Rotholtz

re cast

ZINC contemporary

Jan 3 - Feb 2, 2019

Lynne Rotholtz studied art at the University of Washington. She works in paper, textiles, and paint. Her process is a form of targeted recycling—she deconstructs obsolete ephemera to harvest the visceral and social, to re-contextualize them and create patterns from noise. She lives in Seattle.

ZINC contemporary

Pioneer Square - Seattle | 119 Prefontaine Place South
zinccontemporary.com | 206.617.5775 | @zinccontemporary.com