

Statement

Mary Finlayson

Mary Finlayson paintings are a celebration of color, pattern and form which navigate themes of home, memory, and self. Through flattened interiors, she provides viewers an intimate glimpse into homes as memories--often a departure from reality. She invites us to consider what home means to us, both in our past and in our idealized form.

ZINC contemporary

Pioneer Square - Seattle | 119 Prefontaine Place South
zincontemporary.com | 206.617.5775 | @zincontemporary.com